The library has received donations from several persons and associations, a list of which donations will be found in a previous part of this Report—page 39. Of the donors to whom special acknowledgments are due, are—Hon. Henry Wilson, Miss Eliza S. Quincy (sixty-three pamphlets prepared by her father, Hon. Josiah Quincy, and arranged by her for binding, making two bound volumes,) David Pulsifier, Esq., Edward Jarvis, M.D., Rev. Joseph Tracy, D.D., Rev. Minor G. Pratt, Samuel Gregory, Esq., Delegation of Shakers to the Convention in Boston, Buffalo Historical Society, &c., &c.

During the year two entire sets of Massachusetts Statutes at Large, from the Revolutionary Period, or just before the adoption of the State Constitution, have been collected, arranged in chronological order, bound uniformly, and so labelled in respect to dates and sessions as greatly to facilitate reference. The Resolves are in two complete sets of twenty volumes each, from May, 1776, to April, 1838, when the Resolves as originally published were no longer printed separately from the Acts. The Acts also in two perfect series of twenty volumes each, extend from July, 1775, to 1855, making an aggregate of eighty volumes of Statutes at Large, newly bound and conveniently arranged. Since 1838, the Acts and Resolves of each year have been printed and bound together, and there was no occasion for rebinding those passed since 1855. The library, therefore, now has two complete sets of our Acts and Resolves, as originally printed in the Blue Book, in admirable form, collected with much care and labor, very rarely to be found, procurable at this time with much difficulty, and, consequently, of great and increasing value to the State. Several volumes of the above early statutes were printed without an index, which deficiency will be supplied, in manuscript, as soon as practicable. The cost of binding the duplicate series has increased the aggregate expense for binding beyond the amount usually expended in a single year.

Among the works of special interest recently added, is a complete series of the French Statutes at Large with a full index, in seventy volumes 8vo, beautifully bound in calf, covering a continuous period of the French government for eighty years, or from 1788 to 1868. It is, according to its title-pages, a "Collection complète des Lois, Décrets, Ordonnances, Règlements et Avis du Conseil d'État, Par J. B. Duvergier et J. Duvergier, Paris, 1834-1868." It is believed to be the only copy of a perfect set in New England; also, with one or two exceptions, in the United States; and was furnished to order through our agents in England.

The trustees within the year have employed Messrs. Stevens & Haynes of London, law publishers, booksellers and exporters, to act as agents of the library for the purchase and shipment of foreign books both of a legal and general character. Thus far, orders have been filled by them judiciously and promptly, and in all respects their agency has been eminently satisfactory.

The appeal presented in the last annual report to the legislature of 1869 for an appropriation that should enable the trustees to provide more accommodation for books was successful, as all similar appeals have before been, and the entire sum solicited for this purpose was readily granted. An appropriation of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) was authorized. By the means thus furnished four additional cases have been erected within the library-hall for the reception of new books; while in a room in the first story of the building several cases have been provided for the storage of State publications deposited in the library by order of the legislature, also of duplicate volumes mostly of State papers of the United States now numbering many hundred books. By the removal of them from the library-room and the addition of more cases, our crowded shelves have been relieved and sufficient accommodations have been provided for the present.

By the General Statutes, chap. 5, sect. 3, it is made the duty of the trustees to "superintend the library," and authority is given them to "sell or otherwise dispose of such books belonging thereto as they deem unsuitable for its purposes." Under the powers thus conferred the trustees may deem it expedient to "sell or otherwise dispose of" our large and valuable duplicate series of Congressional publications which are of no present utility while retained by us, and which can be made useful only by being transferred to some other library. Such a disposition would still further relieve the wants of the library in respect to room.

Of the sum appropriated ($1,500), there has been expended for the purposes of the appropriation the sum of eleven hundred ninety-eight dollars sixteen cents ($1,198.16,) leaving at the close of the year three hundred and one dollars and eighty-four cents ($301.84,) as the unexpended balance of the special appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH WHITE, Librarian.
